POPULATION COUNCIL
Ideas. Evidence. Impact.

YOU'RE INVITED: Join host Metrics for Management over drinks and light hors d'oeuvres to discuss the latest research in family planning quality measurement.

In addition to interactive discussion, the event will feature presentations from M4M Director of Research Nirali Chakraborty; Aparna Jain from Population Council; Yoonjung "YJ" Choi and David Bishai from the Bill & Melinda Gates Institute for Population and Reproductive Health, JHSPH; and Kelsey Holt from University of California, San Francisco. Presentation topics will include measuring quality across facility and community settings in India, variations in the Method Information Index (MII) over time, how and how well the MII may be used to measure quality, the creation of a new scale for FP counseling, and assessing
